Dantzick, Jan. 30. According to the advices we receive from Warsaw, the King and Queen of Poland made their publick Entry into that City on the 13 instant; and the next day the Dyet assembled for the first time: it was the 20 before they could choose their Mareschal, or Speaker, occasioned by several disputes which arose among the Nobility: Since, their Debate has been wholly concerning an Oath to be prescribed all the Members of the said Dyet, by which every one is to declare, that he has neither received Rewards, or promises of Rewards, to promote the Interests of any Forreign Power.

Copenhagen, Febr. 2. There happens at present very little to advise from hence, for we are wholly taken up in our preparations for the next Campagne. The Heer Tromp is not yet parted for Holland; the King has given him an Earldom in Schonen, of which he will take possession the next Summer. The Suedes, we hear, have posted several Troops about Christianstadt, to prevent the incursions of that Garrison, which would otherwise be very troublesome to them. From Elsenburg we have several various reports, and among other things, that the Velt-Marshal General Helmfeldt is dead.

Hamburgh, Febr. 12. Yesterday, according to our last Letters from Berlin, the Elector of Brandenburg meant to begin his journey from thence towards Cleves. From Mecklenburg we hear, that the Danes having, after great contest, quitted the Fortress of Boizou, the Brandenburg Troops had again taken possession of it. The Duke of Holstein Ploen has taken a review of the Troops of the Duke of Wolfembutel near the City of that name, of which, several Regiments are to be sent to the assistance of Denmark. And we are told, that General Chauvet, with 1000 men of the Duke of Zell; Lieutenant General Paduwel, with 3000 of the Duke of Hanouer, and Major General Wedel, with 4000 Munsterians, are to pass likewise into the service of the King of Denmark.

Strasburgh, Febr. 12. On Wednesday last, the French compleated the demolition of Haguenaw, and after having burnt about 120 houses, which were in the middle of the Town, viz. the Town-house, the Toll-house, the Arsenal, &c. the Garrison marched out. They continue to demolish the Walls of Savern, but are resolved not onely to keep the Castle, but likewise
